Hana Sadiq: Fashion in Performance

New York, NY – November, 2011 – Hana Sadiq is an internationally renowned Iraqi fashion designer residing in Jordan, specializing in the integration of Arab art and designs with the best of contemporary haute couture.

Sadiq will be presenting pieces from her collection at downtown arts and culture center Alwan for the Arts. Join us for an atypical presentation of her lush designs, formatted as a choreographed fashion performance piece. You can learn more about her designs at www.hanasadiq.com.

Choreography by Carrie Ahern, makeup by Sonja Roberts, hair by Marco Testa, and sound by New Prosthetics.

Hana Sadiq specializes in integrating Arab art and design elements with contemporary haute couture designs.

Hana Sadiq has designed costumes for many feature films and television series in the Arab world, and has received many accolades for her work, including an honorary prize for international fashion in Moscow (1987), the Golden Medal in the international cultural fashion summit in Italy (1998), the Medal of Best Arab Designer in Athens (1989), the Golden Award for best fashion designer in Bahrain (2000-2001), the Golden Award for best fashion designer in Dubai (2001-2002) and an honor certificate from France (Paris 1998 and Saint Etienne biennale 2002).
